Facts for the traveller

Air Travel

Some regional airlines serve the local airport at Rostock-Laage, but most large airlines serve the airport in Hamburg and Berlin. From the airport Rostock-Laage shuttle busses go to the central bus station next to the railway station. At the Rostock main railway station there will be the local trains(S-Bahn) to Rostock-Warnemünde running every 15min at day time with a break between 24:00 and 4:00.

Ferry Travel

Ferries go from Helsinki (Finland), Trelleborg (Sweden) and Gedser (Denmark). For further information visit the homepage of Scandlines Deutschland GmbH:

Car Travel

Comming from the south of Germany traveling in direction Berlin (beltway west). Change from beltway to A24 direction Hamburg/Rostock for 60km. At the junction Wittstock/Dosse change from A24 onto the A19 in direction Wittstock, Rostock via A19. Follow the A19 to the end were a tunnel will be joining the citymotorway to Warnemünde. There you will have to use the ferry to the Yachthafen. If you like to avoid the tunnel (MAUT/taxes) leave A19 at the junction to A20 in the direction to Hamburg approximately 10 km ahead Rostock. Than you will have to leave the A20 at Rostock-West to join the citymotorway to Warnemünde.

Transportation

The congress center in Rostock-Warnemünde is 20 km far from the local airport in Rostock-Laage. Transfers will be provided by taxi or local bus service according to the time of arrivals and departures. From the airports in Berlin and Hamburg bus or taxi service to the main train stations in these cities will be provided.

- From Hamburg:
Most trains from Hamburg go directly to Rostock. Travelling time is about 2h 15min and the costs are about 31 €
- From Berlin:
Leaving from Berlin-Lichtenberg or Berlin-Zoologischer Garten trains go directly to Rostock. Traveling time is about 2h 45min and tickets cost 30-35 €

Dear Colleagues

Management of the univentricular circulation is an interdisciplinary task involving pediatric cardiologist, cardiac surgeons and many other specialists. The lifelong treatment represents a major concern to all physicians involved in medical care of these patients. The summer course on the Fontan circulation addresses a number of critical factors and open questions in diagnosis and treatment as well as new directions of development.

We cordially invite you to come to the scenic area at the seaside of Rostock-Warnemünde. The conference site at the Yachthafen Residenz, Warnemünde offers an attractive possibility for intensive discussion with experts in the field.

Yours,
Prof. Dr. Mathias Peuster
Dr. Eugen Sandica
Prof. Dr. med. Gustav Steinhoff

Socialprogramm

September 1, 2007

Speedsailing

Sailing on maxi yachts like these is the ultimate experience in incorporating team building, active participation, healthy competition and a great deal of excitement and a lot of fun. A day spent sailing on these magnificent racing yachts on the best sailing spots of the Baltic Sea, relaxing afterwards in the comfort and luxury of the catered speed base close to the boats, is an unforgettable experience for every single participant.

Boat cruise to Rostock harbour

When the seaside resort of Warnemünde was purchased in 1323 -at that time still a small fishing village- the people of Rostock bought themselves a piece of nearby paradise in the early middle ages. Not only is the wide beach special to Warnemünde, but also 'Alter Strom' is unique. You will enjoy this 2 hour trip, definitely.

Trip to Helligendamm

You visit the „Gothic Münster“, a old monastery, with his valuable art treasures built between 1294 and 1368. After that you go along the the fantastic seaside resort Heiligendamm, place of the G8-world-meeting in june 2007.
